VALUES STILL MATTER

We are Building Bridges and Changing Lives through Educational Travel. We're educators, not travel agents. Values still matter to us which is why we take student groups from across the country to Costa Rica where they develop new knowledge and skills related to world cultures, languages, biodiversity and conservation.

“ I cannot say enough good things about Global Travel Alliance. I do not believe you could find a better company to travel with. ”

Perry - Middle School Principal

Tentative Itinerary

Overview: Spend 8 days with your peers building a home for a family in need - experience the joy of service work while learning about the incredible people, landscapes and wildlife of Costa Rica.

Day 1: Arrival and Orientation

Depart for San Jose, Costa Rica. Transfer to our lodge nestled in coffee fields above the San Jose central valley. Orientation to weekly activities.

Day 2: Homebuilding and Ecology

Proceed to homebuilding site. A local contractor along with your Global Travel Alliance guide, are in charge of the project with participation from Service Scholars. Lunch with the recipients of the home, and dinner and a night hike through the rainforest with a local naturalist.

Day 3: Homebuilding and Ecology

Continue homebuilding project. Evening activities exploring the local culture and ecology.

Day 4: Homebuilding and Sustainable Farming

Continue homebuilding project. Afternoon visit with a local family and explore their family subsistence farm. This unique farm is loaded with wildlife and edible and medicinal plants. Prepare with family your authentic Costa Rican meal.

Day 5: Homebuilding and Local School Visit

Continue homebuilding project. Afternoon visit to a rural Costa Rican High School for an inter-cultural exchange. We will spend time with the students to practice Spanish language skills, play games and learn about the ecology of the rainforest.

Day 6: Homebuilding and Zip Lining

Continue homebuilding project. Finish the day exploring the rainforest canopy via a multi-platform zip line.

Day 7: Cut the Ribbon

Finish the home and welcome the family. Our closing ceremony turns the keys to the new home over to the family. Additional time for souvenir shopping.

Day 8: Depart for Home

Return home after eight life changing days!
